REGULATIONS

OF THE

YORK LUNATIC ASYLUM.

YORK:

J. L. FOSTER, PRINTER, GAZETTE OFFICE, HIGH OUSEGATE.

1876.

YORK LUNATIC ASYLUM.

OBJECT OF THE INSTITUTION.

THE YORK LUNATIC ASYLUM was established by voluntary Subscriptions, in the year 1777. It is designed generally, for the relief of Lunatics being either parish paupers, or belonging to distressed and indigent families. Persons of limited incomes, or in moderate circumstances, are deemed objects of this charity, if the expense of their proper care and maintenance cannot be otherwise supported, without occasioning pressure and distress to their families. Persons labouring under the affliction of insanity, whatever be the form or stage of the disease, are admissible as patients, at the discretion of the Governors; and though the Asylum is an Establishment for the County of York, patients from other counties and places may be admitted on extraordinary occasions.

Affluent patients, to a limited extent, are admitted, on a rate of payment adequate to their abilities; with a view to the providing, from the payments of this class, additional means of relieving the most necessitous objects; and this extension of the benefits of the Institution has been, it is believed, alike beneficial to the more opulent and to the poorer classes.
